

SRI RAMKRISHNA ASHRAMA INSTITUTE (HIGH SCHOOL)

Co-ed and Bengali Medium
Assessment-1 (Answer Sheet)

CLASS-IX

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

SECTION A

1) Write the correct alternative to complete the following sentences:-

- i) The pirates were hiding a box -----
c) Under the sand dune in a sea beach
- ii) To maintain the rule one should have -----
d) Good temper
- iii) The smoke goes upward through -----
d) Bare trees -----
- iv) "I'm a very fine bird." Here the speaker is a -----
c) Parrot
- v) In the poem 'Autumn', the cock is seen on the -----
d) Heap of dung
- vi) The conductor felt that he would like to justify -----
a) Himself
- vii) The crow has its nest on -----
a) Oak tree
- viii) The tiger settled down under a bush without -----
b) Taking its eyes off Bhola Grandpa

2) Answer the following question within 15 words:

- i) The man on the mound was bewildered to find Bhola Grandpa simply passing by the hungry tiger.
- ii) The policeman remained quite indifferent in that crisis situation and genially told the passengers that the bus conductor had got his rules.
- iii) The feather of raven falls from its breast on the grass covered land laden with the sharp stem of crops after harvesting.

- iv) A male peahen dances on the dewy grass with its burnished tail like a fountain in the sunlight.
- v) The faded leaves of the elm tree are twirled by the windowpane with many other leaves scattered down the lane.
- vi) Royal Bengal tigers freely roamed in the dense jungles of the Sundarban. So people took care to move about cautiously in groups especially after sundown.
- vii) The narrator marked the bus conductor as a type of a person having general vague grievance about everything.
- viii) The author describes the cries of the touracos to be rich, fruity and slightly hoarse.

3) Answer the following question within 25 words:

- i) The visitors come flooding in just after the zoo gates open. They often behave rudely with the animals. They disturb the sleeping animals by throwing stones at them or by pushing them with sticks. They try to give the chimpanzees lighted cigarettes and razor blades. So the narrator thinks that their conduct is uncivilized.
- ii) A visitor of a zoo is an ordinary member of the public who is not responsible for the well being of the animals. On the other hand the owner is on duty twenty four hours a day looking after the animals with heart and soul.
- iii) The 'mill sails' in the poem 'Autumn' symbolizes the continuity in the process of nature. It suggests the eternal flow of the cycle of season. It goes on uninterruptedly.
- iv) The narrator observes the whole nuisance created by the conductor in the bus. So, when the conductor wanted to justify himself to the author, he advised him to maintain the rules not by its letter but in the actual spirit of it.
- v) The pigeons nestled round their cotes on the insipid and uninteresting days of November. Due to immense cold, they prefer to take shelter in their warm nests.
- vi) Bhola Grandpa once told the narrator's father that he had seen some pirates hiding a large box under the sand dunes in the sea beach. After hearing this the narrator's father and his friends started searching for the box. But they ended up with nothing till midnight. At that time Bhola Grandpa confessed that it was just a dream he had seen in his mid day nap.

SECTION B

4) Write the correct alternatives -----

- i) I have seen people suffering from Corona virus.
c) Present perfect tense
- ii) We had saved the files before the computer crashed.
a) Past perfect tense
- iii) Rehan will be staying with us during the vacations.
b) Future continuous tense
- iv) Manish will have finished his work by tomorrow evening.
c) Future perfect tense

5) Do as directed:-

- i) The little boy was being rewarded by them for his courage.
- ii) I heard a loud noise last night.
- iii) 'You are on duty twenty four hours a day'-Noun clause used as an object to the verb 'means'.
- iv) Trisha came round soon.
- v) I know that he is a dishonest man.
- vi) The farmers revolted against the politicians.
- vii) Ahmedabad is the Manchester of India
- viii) Arrange the events in a chronological order.

SPRAI

SPRAI

SPRATI